JUDGMENT
AND PROB/
COMM
ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced as to the sentencing of Defendant on these convictions. All parties agreed that the Court could proceed with the sentencing. The Court ordered that, pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the Defendant, Yan Sui, is hereby committed on Counts 1, 2, and 3 of the Indictment to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons for a term of 12 months. This term consists of 12 months on each of Counts 1, 2 and 3 of the Indictment, to be served concurrently with each other.

Upon release from imprisonment, the Defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of one year, all such terms to run concurrently under the following terms and conditions:

1. The Defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the United States Probation & Pretrial Services Office and Second Amended General Order 20-04, including the conditions of probation and supervised release set forth in Section III of Second Amended General Order 20-04.
2. The Defendant shall not commit any violation of local, state, or federal law or ordinance.
3. During the period of community supervision, the Defendant shall pay the special assessment and fine in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment.
4. The Defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the Defendant.
5. The Defendant shall participate in mental health treatment, which may include evaluation and counseling, until discharged from the program by the treatment provider, with the approval of the Probation Officer.
6. As directed by the Probation Officer, the Defendant shall pay all or part of the costs of the Court-ordered treatment to the aftercare contractors during the period of community supervision. The Defendant shall provide payment and proof of payment as directed by the Probation Officer. If the Defendant has no ability to pay, no payment shall be required.
7. The Defendant shall apply all monies received from income tax refunds, lottery winnings, inheritance, judgments and any other financial gains to the Court-ordered financial obligation.
8. The Defendant shall comply with the United States Bankruptcy Court, Central District of California's order dated August 25, 2022, prohibiting him from violating the Barton Doctrine, in Docket No. 8:11-bk-20448.

The Court authorizes the Probation Officer to disclose the revised Presentence Report, and any previous mental health evaluations or reports, to the treatment provider. The treatment provider may provide information (excluding the revised Presentence report), to State or local social service agencies (such as the State of California, Department of Social Service), for the purpose of the client's rehabilitation.

The drug testing condition mandated by statute is suspended based on the Court's determination that the Defendant poses a low risk of future substance abuse.

It is ordered that the Defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100, which is due immediately. Any unpaid balance shall

The fine shall be paid in full immediately.

The Defendant shall comply with Second Amended General Order No. 20-04.

It is further ordered that the Defendant surrender himself to the institution designated by the Bureau of Prisons at or before 12 noon, on April 9, 2025. First Street, Suite 3001, Los Angeles, CA 90012.

The Court recommends that the Defendant be incarcerated at Terminal Island, in Southern California.

The Court grants the Government's motion to dismiss all remaining counts as to this defendant only.

Defendant is advised of his right to appeal.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
